

YOU GOTTA BE CRAZY (1975)

Got to be crazy, you got to be real mean
Is it my right, are your kids bright, do you keep your car clean
You know you must keep moving on, keep yourself fit
Gotta keep on smiling, taking all this shit
Must have been tough to no one, need to be a big shot
You must have had a tough time, to get to be the tough guy to talk
Need to be trusted, have to tell lies
Run to the [...], narrow your eyes
Got to keep one eye looking over your shoulder
It's gonna get harder, harder and harder as you get older
Pack up gonna go down south, hide your head in the sand
Only an old man, dying of cancer
When you lose control
You'll reap the harvest you have sown
And as the fear grows
The bad blood slows and turns to stone
And it's too late to lose the weight
You used to need to throw around
So have a good drown
As you go down
All alone
Dragged down by the stone
Got to admit that I'm a little bit confused
Something keeps telling me that I'm just being used
Gotta stay awake, gotta try to shake off this creeping malaise Get up and climb down, down to the whole ground, somewhere outside of the maze

You, you're in it too but, you just keep on pretending
Everyone's the same as you, no one has a real friend
Everything to gain, and you can be the winner
That's the way it really is, everyone's a killer
